

Member Notification

The 88th Annual Business Meeting will be held on Tuesday, March 28, 2023, at 5 p.m. at the Centris Headquarters building, 13120 Pierce Street, in Omaha. Two positions are up for election in 2023, and the nomination committee has selected four candidates for the two three-year terms on the board. We look forward to seeing you at the 88th Annual Meeting.

Nominations by Petition

Nominations for vacancies may also be made by petition. The petition must be signed by 500 Centris members to be valid. Valid petition nominations must be filed at: Attn: Katie Braga; Centris Federal Credit Union; 13120 Pierce Street, Omaha, NE 68144. Petition nominations must be received in person or postmarked by Tuesday, Feb. 14. Petition forms and more information about the petition process can be obtained by contacting Katie Braga, executive assistant at kbraga@centrisfcu.org. Please use "Centris Petition Nomination" in the subject line of your email request.

Voting Procedures

Each qualified member of Centris who is 18 years of age will receive a ballot mid-February. Ballots will be mailed to the address listed on your account. Complete instructions will be included in each mail ballot packet.

Candidate Bios

Daylyn Bidlack

Daylyn Bidlack, CPA, is the controller at Goosmann Law Firm, where she oversees the firm's finances and manages their finance team. She has nearly a decade of experience in accounting, including public accounting as an audit manager and in commercial real estate as a property management accountant. Daylyn began her career in the finance and accounting industry as a teller and universal banker for First National Bank of Omaha. During her five-year tenure in banking, she held roles in the retail, operations and credit card departments of the bank.

Daylyn graduated summa cum laude from the University of Nebraska-Omaha with a Bachelor of Science in business administration, accounting.

Outside of work, Daylyn enjoys running and spending time with her husband and two children.

Kelly JC Koch

Kelly has been an active member of Centris since 2014 with Centris being his primary financial source. Since 1989, Kelly has been employed by Central States Health and Life Co. of Omaha. In his current position as vice president new business and product development, Kelly supports CSO sales efforts in the financial channels. In Kelly's early career, he gained an understanding of the consumer lending market as a loan officer for household finance. He was also a teacher at Benson High School in the business department, teaching personal finance, business law and typing, while coaching the Bunnies JV Girls Basketball and Boys JV Baseball teams. Kelly's diverse work experience brings excellent consumer and finance insight.

Kelly is a graduate of the University of Nebraska-Kearney where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in vocational business education. He enjoys playing golf and is an active supporter of both Nebraska and Creighton athletics.

Over Please

Joe Sacco - incumbent

Joe Sacco is past chairman of the Centris Board of Directors, current director on the Centris Board, and president of Bank-Site. A business owner and corporate financial consultant for over 35 years, Joe has worked with banks and credit unions across the U.S. — including Wells Fargo, Principal Financial Group, GMAC, Bank of the West, First Tennessee, First National Bank, TD Ameritrade, Edwards Federal Credit Union, First Entertainment, Union Bank and Citizen's Bank. His corporate experience also includes work for Microsoft, Yahoo, Gateway, Intuit, ACDelco, Hershey's, Pizza Hut, Home Depot, HGTV, Nestle, Warner Brothers, and ConAgra Foods.

His companies have employed more than 250 professionals, and he is experienced in strategic planning, corporate development, and sales and marketing strategy. His community involvement includes more than 20 years coaching youth sports, work for non-profits including Easter Seals, Make-A-Wish, American Heart Association and Family Housing Advisory Services. He is a founder of Free Speech Nebraska and a graduate of the University of Nebraska-Omaha.

Jeffrey M. Shapiro

Jeffrey M. Shapiro retired from Centris Federal Credit Union after 13 years of service in executive management, most recently as executive vice president. During his tenure, Jeff helped Centris grow from $600 million to more than $1 billion in assets while overseeing the activities of indirect auto lending, business banking, mortgage services, residential new construction and marketing departments. Throughout his career, Jeff established a successful history of building revenue, member base, sales and operational teams in the following industries: financial services, mortgage banking, real estate, information technology, telecommunications and leasing. He has worked as a mortgage banker, national sales manager, business owner, regional account manager, branch manager and credit manager.

Jeff attended the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, where he studied economics and business. He serves on the board of directors of Nebraska Prostate Cancer Alliance and helps manage the annual Cruisin' for a Cure car show. Jeff is married and enjoys spending time with his three grandchildren.

