

STATE OF NEBRASKA

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

Credit unions are individual, independent cooperatives founded by people working together towards economic advancement, uniting people seeking a way to improve their future; and

WHEREAS,

Credit unions call for the pooling of personal resources and leadership abilities for the good of the cooperative, encourage a regular habit of saving so those in need may borrow, and foster the desire to repay loans so members may have access to credit when it is required; and

WHEREAS,

Credit unions empower people to improve their economic situations in 96 nations around the world, through more than 49,000 credit unions currently serving the financial needs of 177 million members, including Nebraska's 420,000 members, associated through local, state, regional, and international organizations sharing the same commitment to serving credit union members; and

WHEREAS,

Credit unions are developing strong alliances that make financial democracy possible in many countries such as China, Poland, Russia, Ghana, Argentina, Ukraine, and the rest of the world.

NOW, THEREFORE,

I, Dave Heineman, Governor of the State of Nebraska, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM the 21st day of October, 2010, as in Nebraska, and I do hereby encourage all citizens to recognize the many contributions credit unions have made to the communities in this state, both tangible and intangible, through the years, and honor and express appreciation for the service and commitment of Nebraska's credit unions.

INTERNATIONAL CREDIT UNION DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and cause the Great Seal of the State of Nebraska to be affixed this Sixth day of October, in the year of our Lord Two Thousand Ten.

Attest:

Secretary of State

Governor
