Centris Awards Scholarships to 10 Graduating Seniors

OMAHA, Neb – Centris Federal Credit Union has awarded 10 $1,000 scholarships to graduating seniors across Nebraska and Iowa through its 2023 Scholarship Program. The winners include four credit union members and six credit union employee's graduating seniors:

- Alyssa Buell, Millard North High School, Omaha, NE
- Mia Cacioppo, Gretna High School, Gretna, NE
- Sierra Cain, North Platte High School, North Platte, NE
- Dax Connick, North Platte St. Patrick's High School, North Platte, NE
- Thomas Gleason, Bellevue East Senior High School, Bellevue, NE
- Braydon Lincoln, Abraham Lincoln High School, Council Bluffs, IA
- Mikayla Manna, Westside High School
- Aidan Payne, Papillon LaVista South High School
- Tyler Powell, Millard North High School, Omaha, NE
- Drew Wilson, Abraham Lincoln High School, Council Bluffs, IA

To be eligible for the program, students must 1) be a high school senior who lives in Nebraska or Iowa and 2) be the primary account owner on a Centris account for at least a year prior to applying for the scholarship. The winners were selected based on their responses to two essay questions that focused on the credit union philosophy and financial health.

The annual Centris Scholarship Program is in its 12th year. "We're honored to be able to help these students prepare for the next phase of their lives," said Dawn Gonzales, vice president of community relations at Centris. "The financial health of our members is our priority so they can pursue their individual dreams and enrich the communities they call home."

Applications for the 2024 round of scholarships will be available this fall on centrisfcu.org.
