Centris Federal Credit Union and Elan Charitable Giving Announce $12,500 Gift to Together Omaha

OMAHA, Neb., -- Today, the Elan Charitable Giving program announced $375,000 in donations being given across 30 communities. Each $12,500 gift was given to a charity selected by an Elan Credit Card partner. Centris Federal Credit Union is an Elan Credit Card partner and is pleased to announce that Together Omaha is their chosen recipient of the funds.

"We're delighted to expand our reach this year to the communities of 15 credit union and 15 community bank partners," said John Owens, Elan Credit Card General Manager, "From food insecurity and housing to animal shelters and youth arts programming, the Elan Charitable Giving program continues to support the needs of our partner's communities."

"Centris is proud to work with partners that have a strong focus on their products to satisfy the needs of our members while at the same time seeing the importance of supporting the communities in which their partners live and work," said Kasha Wilson, assistant vice president retail financial services, Centris Federal Credit Union.
