FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Free Movie Night Sept. 22 at Werner Park

OMAHA – Werner Park will be transformed into a cozy outdoor theatre Friday evening, Sept. 22, for a free screening of “Freaky Friday.” The event, sponsored by Centris Federal Credit Union, is open to the public. The gates open at 6:00pm, and the movie will start at 7:30pm.

Attendees can bring blankets or chairs and sit on the field or find a good viewing spot from the stadium seats. The concessions will be open for food and beverage purchases.

This is the 13th year Centris has sponsored a free movie night featuring blockbuster films from the past. “It’s a great opportunity to have fun with family and friends under the stars in a unique environment,” said Dawn Gonzales, vice president, community relations for Centris.

Werner Park is located at 12356 Ballpark Way in Papillion. To reserve your free spot, visit <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/centris-federal-credit-union-movie-night-2023-tickets-687497091307?fbclid=IwAR21zig7k0Eb1uiUlunvW5bsOBqvcIHSDQfb8JYQFwGn260-zJsULol-Qcl>.

Centris Federal Credit Union, founded in 1934, is one of Nebraska’s largest federally chartered community credit unions.
