Centris Celebrates 90th Anniversary with Community Concert

OMAHA, Neb., -- Centris Federal Credit Union will honor their 90th year of business by hosting the Centris Music Fest at Stinson Park located in Aksarben Village on Saturday, July 27. The event is free for the community.

Centris was the 28th federally chartered credit union founded in Omaha, NE in 1934 by employees of the Omaha Telephone Company. "Part of our history is that we were founded the very same year that the Federal Credit Union Act was passed by Congress," said Steve Swanstrom, Centris CEO and president. "For 90 years we have served the banking needs of those who lived or worked in many Nebraska and western Iowa communities. This is a milestone that marks years of service to our members, families, and businesses and we want to share this celebration with the community who provided us our foundation for success," said Swanstrom.

Centris Music Fest will feature multiple local bands playing throughout the day, face painting, the Centris Chill Zone, balloon art, yard games and other activities for the daylong celebration. The concert event begins at 2 p.m. and will end with a special Centris fireworks show at 10 p.m.

The band line-up for the Centris Music Fest includes local favorites that represent a rich variety of music:

3:00 p.m.	Heartland Boogie Band
4:15 p.m.	Blue House
5:30 p.m.	The 402
