Kopun Named Mortgage Professional of the Year

OMAHA, Neb., - Centris Federal Credit Union is pleased to announce that PK Kopun, mortgage loan originator, has been named the Nebraska Mortgage Association's Mortgage Professional of the Year.

This distinction awarded by the NMA highlights an individual who, in the opinion of his/her peers and of the selection committee, has brought honor to themselves and the mortgage industry throughout their career. Heidi Weeks, vice president, real estate lending for Centris said that Kopun was truly surprised by the honor which made the announcement at the late September NMA conference even more exciting. "Those who know PK know this is a very well-deserved recognition for his contributions and tireless work in our industry," she said.

In addition, Janette Calabro, Centris mortgage loan originator, was recognized for earning the Champion's Circle distinction at the silver level for smaller cities.

"Through the years, Centris' mortgage team has regularly been recognized by the NMA for their professionalism and commitment to Nebraska's mortgage industry and the communities we serve. Our employees are committed to ethical mortgage lending practices and the recognition received is appreciated!" Weeks added.
