Centris Federal Credit Union's President/CEO Elected to Nebraska Credit Union League Board of Directors

OMAHA, Neb. – Centris Federal Credit Union announced that its president and CEO, Steve Swanstrom, has been elected for a three-year term as a Director on the Nebraska Credit Union League's Board of Directors.

Swanstrom will represent credit unions under Asset Category A - $100 million and larger. "I am honored to serve on the Nebraska Credit Union League Board of Directors. As a Director, I am committed to dedicating time and attention to League affairs, staying informed on industry developments, and contributing to strategic decisions that advance the League's mission," Swanstrom stated.

The Nebraska Credit Union League Board of Directors must attend meetings regularly, approve strategic plans, budgets, and key policy positions, prioritize the League's interests, and make decisions that benefit the League.
