Centris Federal Credit Union Announces Board Members at 90th Annual Meeting

OMAHA, Neb. – Centris Federal Credit Union announced its board of directors and officers and supervisory committee appointments at the 90th Annual Business Meeting, held March 27, 2025. The board of directors includes seven Centris members who volunteer to serve and are elected by the membership. This year, two positions on the board had expired terms and were open for nomination.

Matt Dannehl, who will continue to serve as board chair for the ensuing year, has been appointed to his fourth, three-year term. Dannehl has over 45 years of experience in the telecommunications industry and currently works for RLM as the vice president of sales for the U.S.

Kellogg

Anna Kellogg was appointed to serve her second three-year board term. She was elected to continue serving as treasurer. Kellogg has also been a registered nurse for the last 40 years, advocating for patient care and customer service.

Additional officers elected by the Centris board of directors include Kelly JC Koch, first vice chair; Jeffrey Shapiro, second vice chair; and Paul Ellofson, secretary. Other directors include Joe Sacco and Lenny Swanger. Daylyn Bidlack and Malinda Williams were appointed again for a second term as associate directors.

The Centris supervisory committee appointments include Patrick Brusnahan, Todd Rohweder, Terrence Coleman, and James Nubel. Andy Hinton, who has served as vice chair of the supervisory committee, has resigned from his position. The board of directors will make an appointment to fill his role at a later date.

Centris Federal Credit Union, founded in 1934, is Nebraska's largest federally chartered community credit union. With a billion dollars in assets, Centris serves Cass, Dodge, Douglas, Lincoln, McPherson, Sarpy, Saunders, and Washington counties in Nebraska, as well as Harrison, Mills, and Pottawattamie counties in Iowa. Centris has 15 branches located in Omaha, Grand Island, North Platte, and Tryon, Neb., and Council Bluffs, Iowa.
