FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Centris Federal Credit Union Celebrates Grand Reopening of Relocated Ames Avenue Branch

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 22, 2025 - Centris Federal Credit Union, a dedicated financial partner in the Omaha community for over 90 years, is pleased to announce the successful relocation and grand reopening of its Ames Avenue branch. The new full-service branch, now located at 6572 Ames Avenue, Omaha, NE 68104, officially opened its doors to members on August 18. Centris hosted a ribbon-cutting ceremony on September 17 and a grand reopening celebration for its members and the community on September 20 at the new branch.

"We were thrilled to celebrate the grand reopening of our Ames Avenue branch with our valued members," said Ann Helm, Executive Vice President and Chief Experience Officer. "Seeing so many familiar faces, meeting new members of the community while sharing this exciting milestone, truly highlighted the strong community spirit we cherish. This new, modern facility allows us to continue providing the exceptional service and personalized financial guidance our members appreciate, now in an even more convenient and welcoming environment."

Centris's commitment to providing an enhanced and more convenient banking experience for its loyal and growing membership in the area drove the move to the new Ames Avenue location. The new branch offers a modernized lobby, ample parking, and a streamlined and accessible drive-thru, making it even easier for members to take care of their banking needs.

At the heart of the new Ames Avenue branch, you'll find friendly and welcoming staff ready to help serve members' financial needs with a full suite of financial products and services — everything from personal and business checking and savings accounts to diverse loan solutions, including mortgages, personal, auto, and home equity options.
