Centris Federal Credit Union Celebrates Gretna Expansion with Ribbon Cutting and Grand Opening Event

OMAHA, Neb – Centris Federal Credit Union celebrated the grand opening of its newest branch in Gretna on Wednesday, July 15, with a ribbon-cutting ceremony and grand opening celebration attended by community leaders, Gretna Chamber members, local business leaders, and Centris members and employees. More than 250 guests joined the celebration, where they could tour the new branch, meet the Centris team, and enjoy an evening of family-friendly food and activities.

“We were thrilled to welcome the community into our new space and share in this exciting milestone together,” said Ann Helm, executive vice president, chief experience officer. “Whether it's supporting a family's financial goals, guiding someone through their next big milestone, or helping a business expand, our focus is on building strong relationships and delivering value at every stage.”

The new branch, located at 11013 S. 192nd Avenue, offers convenient access to a wide range of services, including:

- Personal banking, loans, and everyday financial services
- Business banking, lending, and treasury management solutions
- Competitive rates
- Local expertise with a personalized, member-first approach

Lobby hours are Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Drive-thru service is available Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. and Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., with a drive-up ATM accessible 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
