Centris Federal Credit Union Announces Recipients of 4th Annual Community Impact Grants

OMAHA, Neb. – Centris Federal Credit Union is proud to announce the six organizations receiving funding through its fourth annual Community Impact Grant Program. Through the program, Centris awarded $50,000 to local nonprofits making a meaningful difference across Nebraska and western Iowa.

The recipients of the 2026 Community Impact Grant are:

- 3Sisters
- Band of the Strong
- Bellevue Food Pantry
- Completely KIDS
- Heart Ministry Center
- HOPE Esperanza

Since launching in 2023, the Community Impact Grant Program has awarded $200,000 to nonprofit organizations whose work aligns with Centris' core community pillars of financial education, health and human services, and community betterment.

"The Community Impact Grant Program reflects our ongoing commitment to strengthening the communities we serve," said Dawn Gonzales, vice president of community relations at Centris Federal Credit Union. "Every year, we're inspired by the incredible work being done by local nonprofits and the passion they bring to serving others. We are honored to support these organizations and the positive impact they create for individuals and families throughout our communities."

A committee of Centris senior leaders reviewed applications and evaluated each organization based on the program's funding criteria and potential community impact.

"Selecting recipients is never easy because there are so many deserving organizations doing important work," Gonzales said. "Our committee takes great care in reviewing every application, and we are proud to invest in programs that will help strengthen and improve our communities."

Centris Federal Credit Union remains committed to supporting nonprofits and initiatives that help communities thrive. The next application period for the Centris Community Impact Grant Program opens August 16, 2027.
